

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR THE UNITY OF CHRISTIANS 18 - 25 JANUARY EVERY YEAR

Invocations for Unity

From a text devised by Fr Paul Couturier, an Apostle of Unity

Lord, for the low importance we have given to those words that came from your Heart: "I have other sheep not from this fold. I must also bring them; they too shall hear my voice":

We ask you to forgive us, Lord.

For our disagreements with our Christian brothers and sisters, sometimes full of irony, or narrowness of spirit, or exaggeration; for our intransigence and harsh judgments about other Christians and Churches:

We ask you to forgive us, Lord.

For all acts of violence or unkindness against our fellow Christians; for all in the past and sustained to this day for which we are to blame:

We ask you to forgive us, Lord.

For all attitudes of pride and self-sufficiency that our Churches may have shown across the ages to other Christians, and for all our failures of awareness or understanding towards each other:

We ask you to forgive us, Lord.

For the bad examples in our conduct, which have slowed down, diminished or destroyed the effects of grace in the souls of others:

We ask you to forgive us, Lord.

For forgetting to offer prayer, frequent, friendly, fervent, on behalf of our fellow Christians:

We ask you to forgive us, Lord.

Above the frontiers of language, race and nation, through all our rich difference and diversity:

Unite us, Jesus.

With Christians who are persecuted and in need, with our migrant and refugee brothers and sisters across the world and in our midst:

Unite us, Jesus.

Above our ignorance, our prejudices, or any unconscious hostility, through better understanding and ever closer communion:

Unite us, Jesus.

Above our different spiritual and theological traditions, in one spirit, one Bread and one Body:

Unite us, Jesus.

O God, for the increase of your glory:

Gather your scattered people.

O God, for the triumph of good and of truth:

Gather your scattered people.

O God, that there may be but one fold and one Shepherd:

Gather your scattered people.

O God, that justice and peace may finally reign in the world:

Gather your scattered people.

O God, to bring fullness of joy to the heart of your Son:

Gather your scattered people.

Daily Prayer of the Chemin Neuf Community, based on Couturier

Lord Jesus, who prayed that we might all be one, we pray to You for the unity of Christians, according to Your will, according to Your means.

May Your Spirit enable us to experience the suffering caused by division, to see our sin, and to hope beyond all hope. Amen.

This leaflet is prepared by the Catholic League, a charity and society supporting Catholic ecumenical principles and endeavours, working for the communion of all Christians in visible unity with the Apostolic See of Rome. It may be reproduced free of charge with acknowledgment.

These intercessions reflect the Prayers at the Liturgy for Good Friday. The themes were devised in 1934 by the French priest, Paul Couturier, for his relaunch of the Week of Prayer, the purpose of Christian Unity being the union of all humanity with God in Christ: "Father, as you are in me and I am in you, may they all be one, that the world may believe it was you that sent me". St John 17.

Let us not become settled in our divisions. Keep us from considering as normal that which is a scandal to the world and an offence to your love.

Paul Couturier
